

PERFORMANCE RATING

Name: Rhodora A. Cruz Period Ending: December 1992
 Position: Clerk II C.S. Elic.: Sub-Professional
 Division: Personnel Division Office: Prov'l Governors Office

FACTORS

POINTS

A. JOB KNOWLEDGE:

How much an employee knows about his job. His familiarity with regulations, policies and procedures affecting his work should be considered.

- * Has exceptionally a complete knowledge of all phases of his work and familiarity with regulations, policies and procedures affecting his job. (35 pts.)
- * Has thorough knowledge of almost all phases of his work; rarely needs instructions and assistance. (30 pts.)
- * Has adequate knowledge of his job, seldom needs instruction and assistance and knows enough to handle his job. . . . (25 pts.)
- * Has insufficient knowledge or has no idea of what the job requires, constantly requires instruction and assistance, more training needed in the assignment. (20 pts.)

B. QUALITY OF WORK:

Determine the accurateness, thoroughness and neatness of the work.

- * Accomplishes very good work, works accurately, neatly and completely. (35 pts.)
- * Does very good work, rarely commits error. (30 pts.)
- * Does fairly good work, seldom makes same mistake twice. . . (25 pts.)
- * Very careless, commits frequent mistakes, requires closer supervision. (20 pts.)

C. QUANTITY OF WORK:

Determine the quantity or amount of work accomplished.

- * Accomplishes large amount of work and exceed quota requirement regularly, completes assignments in the shortest possible time. (35 pts.)
- * Accomplishes more than average amount of work. (30 pts.)
- * Accomplishes fair amount of work. (25 pts.)
- * Accomplishes work slowly, works unsatisfactorily. (20 pts.)

D. ABILITY TO LEARN:

Determine how quickly does an employee grasps the ideas, master new work, remember and put into effect instructions.

- * Can excellently absorb quickly new ideas and master new work, remember and put into effect instructions. (20 pts.)
- * Learns quickly, remembers well but needs little supervision. (15 pts.)
- * Degree of assimilation on the average. (10 pts.)
- * Learns very slowly, needs much supervision and training needed. (5 pts.)

E. JOB ATTITUDE:

Consider employee's interest in his job and his attitude towards supervision being exercised upon him.

- * Extraordinary enthusiastic about his job, has a very high regard for it. (20 pts.)
- * Shows interest in his work, takes pride in his job and welcomes constructive criticisms. (15 pts.)
- * Shows fair interest in his work and fairly enthusiastic. (10 pts.)
- * Lacks interest in his work, has a very low regards for his job, is ashamed of it. (5 pts.)

15

F. PUNCTUALITY AND ATTENDANCE:

Consider the punctuality in coming to and attendance in the office and on the job.

- * Perfect attendance in the office and on the job, exceptionally punctual in observing office hours. (20 pts.)
- * Rarely absent or late for work, very good attendance on the job. (15 pts.)
- * Usually regular, has a good explanation with absence. . . (10 pts.)
- * Frequently absent or late for work, takes every opportunity to be absent or to cut off the office for good reason. . . (5 pts.)

15

G. RESPONSIBILITY:

How reliable the employee is, the extent to which he can be instructed conscientiously.

- * Carries out instructions conscientiously and promptly with excellent results with less supervision. (15 pts.)
- * Carries out instructions adequately, always reliable and needs occasional follow-up. (12 pts.)
- * Reliable in the performance of his duties, needs follow up (9 pts.)
- * Requires frequent checking or follow-up, cannot be relied upon without supervision, has no sense of responsibility. (8 pts.)

12

H. INITIATIVE:

Ability to act properly and promptly on situations called and ability to express new ways and ideas effectively, creative.

- * Possesses an exceptional initiative, makes worthwhile suggestions, can set up new jobs where methods and practices are required. (10 pts.)
- * Has occasionally good suggestions and new ideas, does without waiting for directions, often alert for opportunities into improvement and work. (8 pts.)
- * Does regular work normally without waiting to be told and seldom makes suggestions. (6 pts.)
- * Lacks initiative and has to be led the way, never shows any desire to improve himself or his work. (4 pts.)

8

I. COOPERATIVENESS:

Ability to work harmoniously with others and obtain the cooperation of his subordinates.

- * Excellently cooperative, goes out of his way to cooperate cheerfully with others. (10 pts.)

8